We’re Here For You

The Center for University Advising offers many resources to help you thrive at Notre Dame. Whether you’re looking for academic support, career exploration, or personal guidance, the Center is here to help you succeed.

Getting to Know You

As a new student, you’ve joined a community of scholars dedicated to excellence in all facets of life. The Center for University Advising is committed to helping you navigate your academic journey.

Advising Support

You should have recently received directions on how to set up an appointment with your First Year Advisor. If you have not yet received contact information, please visit firstyear.nd.edu/advising-support to request an appointment.

When our University community resumes in-person classes, for virtual advising and all other services, call (574) 631-6804. If you need immediate assistance, please visit the Center for University Advising.

Course Support

Need help with your classes? Our Course Support program offers assistance for courses such as English 101, 102, 103, 104, Math 105, 106, 207, 208, and more. To schedule an appointment with a Course Support advisor, visit firstyear.nd.edu/courses-support.

Collaborative Learning

The Collaborative Learning program encourages students to work together to complete a learning experience. The program offers small group tutoring sessions for a wide range of courses, including Math, Science, and English.

Tutoring

The Tutoring program allows students to review topics covered in class through peer-to-peer learning. The program offers small group and individual tutoring sessions.

Help Sessions

Help Sessions are available weekly on a walk-in basis for certain classes, such as Calculus, Chemistry, and Physics. To sign up, please visit the Center for University Advising.

Looking For A Private Space?

For additional support when you need a quiet place to meet with your advisor or join a Zoom class, the Mathematics, Chemistry, and Physics Learning Resource Centers (LRCs) offer reserved spaces.

Miss something from last time?

Don’t worry! The Center for University Advising will send you an email with a link to watch the video. Visit the Center for University Advising website to access your Learning Continuity Plan.

Program for Academic Excellence

The Program for Academic Excellence (PAE) is a support program for students who need help with their coursework. The program offers tutoring and academic coaching to help students succeed.

Learning Resource Centers (LRCs)

The LRCs are available for students to review course material, work on assignments, and receive help with academic challenges. The LRCs are located in the Hesburgh Library and are open during regular hours.

Moreau FYE Grade Site

The Moreau FYE Grade Site is designed to help students manage their coursework. The site provides resources for students to complete their assignments, view their grades, and track their progress.

The Academic Code of Honor, Building Community the Notre Dame Way, AlcoholEDU, IT Security, and TrueRemove® are available on the Center for University Advising website.
