Meet with Your First Year Advisor

First Year Advising includes the First-Year Seminar, a one-credit course, which meets the first week of each term from 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM and 1:00 PM to 4:30 PM. We look forward to seeing you there!

ADVISING AND RESOURCES

First Year Advising includes the First-Year Seminar, a one-credit course, which meets the first week of each term from 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM and 1:00 PM to 4:30 PM. We look forward to seeing you there!

The Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to join one of their sessions! As you enter into your discernment journey, the Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to listen to companies as they share their unique approach to discerning a meaningful career path. By joining, you can learn about the different organizations and sectors that may interest you. These sessions might be particularly useful, especially if you are at the beginning of your discernment journey.

Many career professionals have recommended that first-years attend the offered group sessions. All first-year students are invited to attend the Virtual Career Fair. The Career Fair will be held on September 28th and 29th, and will feature companies from various industries, including finance, technology, and healthcare. Students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.

Virtual Career Fair

The Virtual Career Fair is open to all students and will be held on September 28th and 29th. During the fair, students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.

What's There To Do?

Miss something from last time? Check it out! From the Colleges, STOA Volume 0, the new student magazine of the SoA, check out the Mendoza Office of Undergraduate Studies site and resources! The Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to join one of their sessions! As you enter into your discernment journey, the Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to listen to companies as they share their unique approach to discerning a meaningful career path. By joining, you can learn about the different organizations and sectors that may interest you. These sessions might be particularly useful, especially if you are at the beginning of your discernment journey.

Many career professionals have recommended that first-years attend the offered group sessions. All first-year students are invited to attend the Virtual Career Fair. The Career Fair will be held on September 28th and 29th, and will feature companies from various industries, including finance, technology, and healthcare. Students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.

Virtual Career Fair

The Virtual Career Fair is open to all students and will be held on September 28th and 29th. During the fair, students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.

What's There To Do?

Miss something from last time? Check it out! From the Colleges, STOA Volume 0, the new student magazine of the SoA, check out the Mendoza Office of Undergraduate Studies site and resources! The Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to join one of their sessions! As you enter into your discernment journey, the Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to listen to companies as they share their unique approach to discerning a meaningful career path. By joining, you can learn about the different organizations and sectors that may interest you. These sessions might be particularly useful, especially if you are at the beginning of your discernment journey.

Many career professionals have recommended that first-years attend the offered group sessions. All first-year students are invited to attend the Virtual Career Fair. The Career Fair will be held on September 28th and 29th, and will feature companies from various industries, including finance, technology, and healthcare. Students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.

Virtual Career Fair

The Virtual Career Fair is open to all students and will be held on September 28th and 29th. During the fair, students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.

What's There To Do?

Miss something from last time? Check it out! From the Colleges, STOA Volume 0, the new student magazine of the SoA, check out the Mendoza Office of Undergraduate Studies site and resources! The Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to join one of their sessions! As you enter into your discernment journey, the Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to listen to companies as they share their unique approach to discerning a meaningful career path. By joining, you can learn about the different organizations and sectors that may interest you. These sessions might be particularly useful, especially if you are at the beginning of your discernment journey.

Many career professionals have recommended that first-years attend the offered group sessions. All first-year students are invited to attend the Virtual Career Fair. The Career Fair will be held on September 28th and 29th, and will feature companies from various industries, including finance, technology, and healthcare. Students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.

Virtual Career Fair

The Virtual Career Fair is open to all students and will be held on September 28th and 29th. During the fair, students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.

What's There To Do?

Miss something from last time? Check it out! From the Colleges, STOA Volume 0, the new student magazine of the SoA, check out the Mendoza Office of Undergraduate Studies site and resources! The Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to join one of their sessions! As you enter into your discernment journey, the Meruelo Family Center for Career Development invites you to listen to companies as they share their unique approach to discerning a meaningful career path. By joining, you can learn about the different organizations and sectors that may interest you. These sessions might be particularly useful, especially if you are at the beginning of your discernment journey.

Many career professionals have recommended that first-years attend the offered group sessions. All first-year students are invited to attend the Virtual Career Fair. The Career Fair will be held on September 28th and 29th, and will feature companies from various industries, including finance, technology, and healthcare. Students can connect with employers, network, and explore career opportunities. The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about different industries and companies, and to make connections that may lead to future job opportunities.