SPRING REGISTRATION

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

Notre Dame, IN | 46556 US

Got this as a forward?
Manage

Share this email:

rational and ethnic discrimination, domestic abuse, literacy, health care, and many others. Students will strengthen their entrepreneurial mindset as they develop innovative solutions to global issues such as poverty, clean water, human trafficking.

Students who have taken a course and received a grade of C or higher in a previous session may receive credit from that course if the Course Support Advisor approves it. Alternatively, students may be able to receive shorter-term credit for the same course by taking a different course later in the term. If you have any questions or concerns about your credit, please contact the Academic Advisor.

The following information represents only portions of the communications offered by Notre Dame's various colleges and schools. For a more comprehensive look at a college or school, visit their websites or contact their admission offices.

Please review the Spring 2021 registration information and resources!

We have created a personalized Spring Registration Planner, known as PATH Planner, for you to access. Here, you'll see how to search for courses, build your schedule, and complete a few questions about your current major and discipline. As you explore registration for Spring 2021, you'll notice that some business classes are cross-listed in this semester's catalog. Business students are encouraged to check their CRN corresponds to ACCT, FIN, ITAO, MARK, or MGTO. ACTG, and/or MDMK sections.

As described above, use the PATH Class Search tool to walk you through how to search for courses, build your overall understanding of learning inside and outside of the classroom! Even after you depart from campus for Winter Session, we look forward to walking alongside you during these final weeks of the Fall semester!

Advising Support

As you explore your major and minor options, you'll see the course requirements listed in the catalog. "Course fulfills" indicates that the course is common to the major and minor. In our college, a course can only fulfill one requirement.

The curriculum of this minor includes a course in which students will develop an understanding of the world of business. Students will learn the basic principles of business and how they affect society. Students will also learn about the ethical and social responsibilities of business, as well as the role of business in the economy.

McKenna Center for Global Business invites you to explore the Keough School of Global Affairs’ various colleges and schools. For a more comprehensive look at a college or school, visit their websites or contact their admission offices.

We wish you the best of luck during these days of exams! We hope you are able to find time for leisurely activities to help you destress and promote well-being. Even after you depart from campus for Winter Session, we look forward to walking alongside you during these final weeks of the Fall semester!

Let's take the next steps together.

First Year Communications

An invitation for all ND undergraduate students.

New competition featuring 15 colleges from across the country!

National College Championship

Advising Support

As you explore your major and minor options, you'll see the course requirements listed in the catalog. "Course fulfills" indicates that the course is common to the major and minor. In our college, a course can only fulfill one requirement.

The curriculum of this minor includes a course in which students will develop an understanding of the world of business. Students will learn the basic principles of business and how they affect society. Students will also learn about the ethical and social responsibilities of business, as well as the role of business in the economy.

McKenna Center for Global Business invites you to explore the Keough School of Global Affairs’ various colleges and schools. For a more comprehensive look at a college or school, visit their websites or contact their admission offices.

We wish you the best of luck during these days of exams! We hope you are able to find time for leisurely activities to help you destress and promote well-being. Even after you depart from campus for Winter Session, we look forward to walking alongside you during these final weeks of the Fall semester!

Let's take the next steps together.

First Year Communications

An invitation for all ND undergraduate students.

New competition featuring 15 colleges from across the country!

National College Championship

Advising Support

As you explore your major and minor options, you'll see the course requirements listed in the catalog. "Course fulfills" indicates that the course is common to the major and minor. In our college, a course can only fulfill one requirement.

The curriculum of this minor includes a course in which students will develop an understanding of the world of business. Students will learn the basic principles of business and how they affect society. Students will also learn about the ethical and social responsibilities of business, as well as the role of business in the economy.

McKenna Center for Global Business invites you to explore the Keough School of Global Affairs’ various colleges and schools. For a more comprehensive look at a college or school, visit their websites or contact their admission offices.

We wish you the best of luck during these days of exams! We hope you are able to find time for leisurely activities to help you destress and promote well-being. Even after you depart from campus for Winter Session, we look forward to walking alongside you during these final weeks of the Fall semester!

Let's take the next steps together.