The lecture is Wed, February 24th from 5:15 PM - 6:30 PM!

Transformative Power of Design Thinking, a lecture from the Institute of Architecture invites all students to the Academic Journeys Week. This exciting turn in your journey is approaching. However, just as you weren't alone this sophomore year, you won't be alone this academic journey. The Keough School of Global Affairs offers many resources to help you through this process.

Academic Journeys Week, meeting with you one-on-one, and encouraging you to engage with members of Notre Dame's scholarly community to learn more about majors, minors, create connections with centers and research teams, and win prizes!
