YOUR NEXT STEPS WITH THE COLLEGES

Make Part of Academic Journeys Week!

KEOUGH SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS

The Keough School of Global Affairs Undergraduate Study is offering next steps about next steps. You can expect to receive your First Year Advisor, you will be there to assist you throughout the rest of the semester. Following your meeting with your First Year Advisor, you will hear from the College of Engineering Directors of Majors and Minors for descriptions, opportunities, requirements, and more.

MENDOZA COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The formal declaration of your future college takes place in the Orientation and Registration (BOARD) Meeting between April 20 and April 30. Your Mendoza advisor will provide expert advice on how to make the most of your degree moving forward. If you haven't already, be certain to visit each of the majors and minors pages for descriptions, opportunities, requirements, and more.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND LETTERS

Your academic journey will be filled with opportunities and resources from your Arts and Letters advisors. The formal declaration of your major or minor will take place in the Mendoza Office of Undergraduate Studies Orientation and Registration (BOARD) Meeting between April 20 and April 30. The Arts and Letters advising team, with whom you will work through your academic career, will help you think about how to make the most of your education at Notre Dame. All students of the University are required to declare a major or minor.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The Mendoza College of Business offers several majors and minors. You can translate to you making your college plans for the fall semester! Your Academic Journeys Week will begin with a meeting with your First Year Advisor and a visit to the Center for University Advising in early April. You will hear from the College of Engineering Directors of Majors and Minors for descriptions, opportunities, requirements, and more.

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE

All students of the University are required to declare a major or minor. If you haven't already, be certain to visit each of the majors and minors pages for descriptions, opportunities, requirements, and more.

Let's Take the Next Steps Together!

There will be a mandatory orientation and registration meeting on Tuesday, April 6 from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. You will be given directions for completing a Business Plan, which will be translated to you meeting your learning goals this semester!
