Welcome Home from the First Year Engineering Advising Team!

The First Year Advising Team for the College of Engineering is thrilled to welcome you to Notre Dame! We know you’re excited and nervous about what your first year has in store for you, and we’re here to help make sure that you have the best experience possible.

Schedule An Appointment with your First Year Advisor!

On June 18, your First Year Advisor sent you an email welcoming you to Notre Dame. If you haven’t yet scheduled an appointment, it’s never too late to book one! If you’re having trouble scheduling an appointment or haven’t heard from your First Year Advisor, contact firstyear@nd.edu.

Complete the Calculus Proficiency Quizzes?

Remember, all incoming first-year students planning to take any level of Calculus during their first year are required to take the Math Proficiency Quizzes by June 30, 2021—tomorrow!

Instagram Live (Again) Tomorrow!

Join Katrina Higgins, Director of First Year Advising, on Instagram Live tomorrow, June 30 at 1:00PM EDT! Katrina will answer questions, share stories, and maybe even tell some jokes!

So, What is a USEM?
