Dear Class of 2025,

You are at the University of Notre Dame because you are a high-achieving scholar with a record of perseverance, creativity, and success. As you meet so many impressive young women and men on campus these first weeks, it can be easy to consider yourself not as academically strong as you once thought. However, this is a common thought among first-year students. The Notre Dame community. This first-year journey is unique to you, but you'll never believe you will find success, joy, and purpose as a valued member of this community. We want you to know we believe in you, we believe you belong here, and we believe you will find success, joy, and purpose as a valued member of this community.

Your Welcome Week experience began with your arrival on campus, but it continues through the first weeks of the fall semester! Click below to find information about events and activities planned to help you familiarize yourself with campus and transition into your new life as a Notre Dame student.
